BALKAN WAR SCENE SHIFTED TONOPAH

FIGHT LAST NIGHT SENDS ONE MAN TO SURGEON AND OTHER TO JAIL

For a few minutes last evening the stage setting of the Balkan war was moved from Europe to Tonopah, the battle ground being the Topic saloon on lower Main street and Geo. Asil and Milo Basich the participants. The two engaged in a one-round battle during which a knife was used and at the conclusion Asil was taken to the office of Dr. Grigsby for temporary repairs and Basich to the county jail where he was held under a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

The trouble occurred about 8 o'clock and followed a heated argument over the war situation. The argument reached such proportions that Basich, it is charged, in order to demonstrate the truth of his ideas, drew a knife and slashed Asil on the left shoulder, inflicting a wound nine inches in length. Bystanders declare that Basich then remonstrated with Asil to stand still while he made another slash, this time inflicting a smaller wound on the neck. Friends then intervened and the war was declared off. Night Officer Arthur Donahue acted the part as a peace commission, declared a cessation of hostilities while he escorted Asil to the doctor's office and Basich to the jail.

The arraignment of Basich was set for trial tomorrow.

ATTACK HEART FAILURE NEARLY CLAIMS LIFE

An unknown man was stricken with an attack of heart failure this afternoon while walking on Water street. When found he was barely breathing and Dr. Richards, who was summoned, gave treatment to which the patient responded. The patient is between 60 and 70 years old and was so weak that he was unable to give his name. He has a son working in one of the mines and until the latter comes off shift the authorities will take care of the old gentleman who was removed to his cabin by Lieutenant of Police Walker.
